Cable News

PARIS—The Allies have notified the German delegation that the blockade will not be raised until Germany ratifies the treaty.

WASHINGTON—The Blockade Council has been instructed to be prepared to raise the economic blockade of Germany immediately upon the ratification by the German National Assembly of the peace treaty.

BREST—President Wilson sailed Sunday afternoon on the George Washington.

BERLIN—Von Bethmann-Hollweg, former chancellor of Germany, has formally asked the Allied powers to place him on trial instead of the former Emperor. He says that he assumes all responsibility for the acts of Germany during his term of office and places himself at the disposal of the Allies.

WASHINGTON—In the refusal of the Chinese delegation to sign peace treaty, Japan was outwitted by South China revolutionaries according to information obtained from an authoritative source here today.

SEATTLE—The Crown Prince escaped from Wierengen last Sunday according to an Amsterdam dispatch.

AMERONGEN—The former emperor for the first time in his life has paid taxes, the municipality of Amerongen having levied the ordinary taxation after examining and estimating the Hohenzollerns' fortune the first three months this year. The sum levied amounts to 12,000 guilder ($4,800.)

DUBLIN—A British flag was burned in Dublin outside Trinity College. A number of Union Jacks were seized. While the torch was applied cheers were given for De Valera and revolutionary songs were sung.

ROME—Serious disorders marked the anti-government demonstrations in Rome Sunday night. The demonstrators attempted to reach the residence of Premier Nitti but were driven back by large forces of military police.

MONTREAL—Tons of Bolshevik literature were seized in a raid on foreign quarters of the city early today.

LONDON—Anti-Bolshevik forces are advancing against Kunk 250 miles south of Moscow and are hoping to find a way to Moscow according to a Russian wireless.

NEW YORK—John A. Embry, American consul at Omsk arrived Tuesday in New York. Embry said that no language could picture the atrocities that have marked the Bolshevik rule in territories recaptured by Admiral Kolchak. Kolchak instituted a Reign of Terror that has been marked, he declared, by murder, theft and arson, and perpetrated with cruelty unparalleled in the history of civilization. He said that Red Cross representatives reported that 2000 persons had been murdered in the town of Ossa and 1500 in Bulgaria.

WASHINGTON, July 1—Grigsby took oath of office today and seated as delegate from Alaska. The republican majority refused to grant Wickersham's request and made no protest.

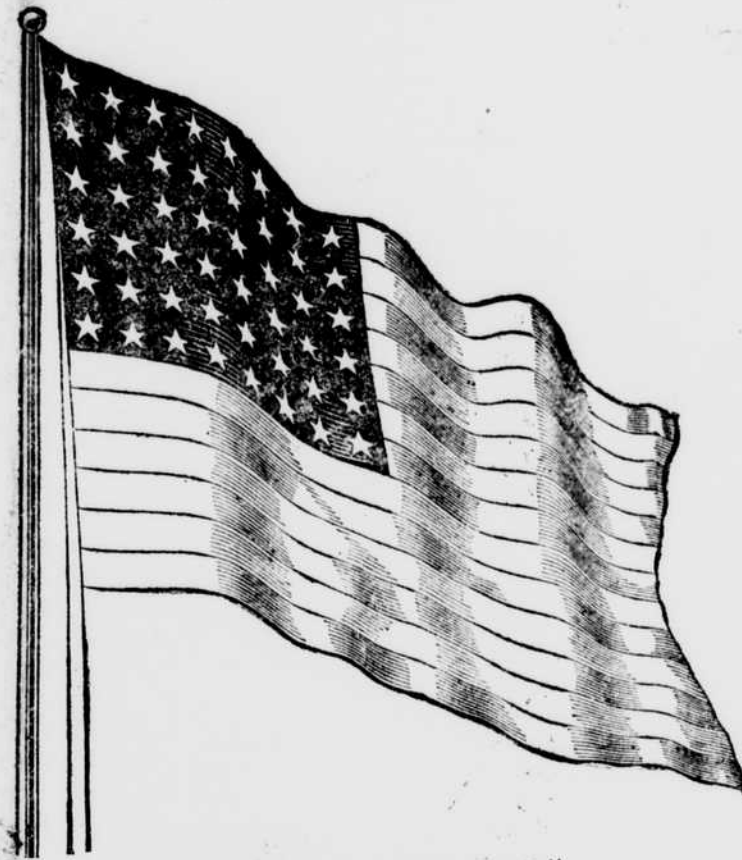

Sawyer Out on Bond

JUNEAU—(Special cable to the Sentinel)—B. R. Sawyer, who was bound over to the grand jury from the Commissioner's court in Wrangell on charges of sedition and evasion of the draft, was released from the federal jail Friday on a bond of $4000. A. E. Walker and John Kole, residents of Ketchikan, were his bondsmen at $2000 each. Sawyer left on the Jefferson for Ketchikan, where it is understood he will resume his activities with the Alaska Labor Union.

Mrs. Fred Thorman and small son were Princess Alice passengers Tuesday, returning to their home in Telegraph Creek from Edmonton where they have been visiting Mrs. Thorman's brother.

The Frank H. Madden brought F. Barlow in for a business visit Tuesday. Mr. Madden says that the fish are showing up well around Point Warde and that there is every prospect for a good fishing season.

Leo McCormack sent us a clipping yesterday entitled "Who is Master of the House?" We had to refrain from reprinting it because of the fear that it might be regarded as being entirely too personal.

Governor Will Arrive Here at Noon Thursday

The following cablegrams were received just before going to press this Wednesday afternoon:

Juneau, July 2, 1919.
J. W. Pritchett, Wrangell.
Mrs. Riggs and I arrive tomorrow about noon, not bringing children. Must return afternoon of fifth.
RIGGS, Governor.

Juneau, July 2, 1919.
J. W. Pritchett, Governor, Mrs. Riggs, and self due in Wrangell 11 a. m. on third.
WALKER.

Owing to the slow mail service the following letter from the Governor was not received in Wrangell until yesterday.

Office of Governor
Juneau
June 25, 1919.
Mr. J. W. Pritchett, Chairman, Fourth of July Program Committee, Wrangell.

My dear Mr. Pritchett:
I have your telegram of June 21, advising me that Mr. Walker will arrange to furnish transportation for me and my family to Wrangell and return in case the schedule of the commercial steamers is unsatisfactory. This is a happy solution for me and will enable me to look forward with pleasure to visiting Wrangell on the Fourth of July. We expect now to arrive to arrive some time on the third of July at Wrangell. Mrs. Riggs will accompany me, together with our two youngsters, aged five and three. Will you kindly arrange for accommodations?

We hope to spend not only the Fourth but also the fifth with you, as I greatly desire to see something more of the people of your part of the country, than would be possible during the Fourth of July celebrations.

In pleasurable anticipation of seeing you shortly, I am,
Cordially yours,
THOMAS RIGGS, JR., Governor.

P. C. McCormack has been confined to his home since Sunday suffering from an attack of acute indigestion.

Hazel B No. 4 Makes Initial Voyage Up River

The Hazel B 4 made her maiden voyage up the Stikine last week. Among the passengers were Mrs. Charles Binkley, Misses Katherine and Margaret Bronson, and Mr. and Mrs. Rolla Shangle.

The river being unusually high, the boat did not have opportunity to show the speed she can make under normal conditions, but she showed clearly to the owners, the Barrington Transportation company, that she was going to be practical and thoroughly satisfactory for the river traffic.

The design of the boat was worked out by Captain Charles M. Binkley, who was in charge of the construction. It is 65 feet in length with a 16-foot beam and is equipped with a 6-cylinder Wisconsin 100 h. p. engine. The hull is built of fir, while the house is constructed of spruce and cedar. One of the chief aims in its construction was lightness. The boards that were used for the walls of the staterooms are only five-sixteenths of an inch in thickness, but the bracing is so well distributed as to give all needed strength.

The Hazel B 4, like the Hazel B 3, reflects in every part of her construction the genius and skill of Captain Binkley, who has revolutionized the designs of river boats.

The new boat possesses the quality of springiness, being constructed so that the bottom will bend up and down with the stream to a certain extent, thereby giving a tremendous advantage over boats possessing more rigidity. The boat was built in such a way that this springing of the hull will not cause the house to become insecure, the quality of elasticity being maintained throughout in its construction.

The Hazel B 4 will soon have some more big game hunters as passengers, a number of parties having made reservations with Captain Sid Barrington.

Notice

The second payment of 10% on Victory Liberty Bonds will be due and payable at Federal Reserve Bank, San Francisco on July 15th. This payment should be made at Bank of Alaska, Wrangell, not later than July 5th, to allow time for mailing draft to San Francisco. If payments are not made promptly, interest will be collected to the next payment period at 4% per cent.

The two little "Speeds" Lennie and Andy, who have been visiting here with their brother Adolf Engstrom, expect to leave for their home at Wrangell on the Evans but were unable to get accommodations on that boat. They will leave later and in the meantime are making the Whitehorse trip.—Douglas Island News.

The Kaiser is shocked that the German government would sign the peace treaty containing a clause that he is to be given up for trial. That is one of many shocks he is due to receive in the near future.

Mrs. C. B. Hanthorne and Eugene Larson are in Juneau from Auk Harbor. They are staying at the Gastineau.—Empire.

Miss Irene Coulter returned this week from Deweyville to spend the Fourth here.

Little Miss Margaret McCormack returned on the Princess Alice from Prince Rupert where she has been attending school.

Stanton Crawford is temporarily clerking at Matheson's.

Our Honored Guests

For the first time in her history Wrangell is to have as her guest on Independence Day the chief executive of Alaska, who will arrive here Wednesday noon accompanied by his wife.

We are all proud and glad to welcome Governor and Mrs. Riggs to Wrangell and we deeply appreciate their honoring us with their presence.

We hope that we will be so successful in our efforts to show them a good time during their visit here that they will return home with only the most pleasant memories of their visit here.

The Fourth in Wrangell

The celebration of the Fourth will begin tomorrow morning with a parade that will be formed in front of the schoolhouse at 9:30. The order of the parade will be as follows:

Returned soldiers and sailors; Native band; Redmen; school children; floats.
The parade will proceed on Church street to the Episcopal Church, turning down into Front street and marching west as far as the cannery, and from thence back to the school house, where the patriotic exercises, including a speech by the Governor, will take place.

A speaker's stand has been erected on the school house steps, and another under the play shed which may be used in case shelter is necessary.

All school children are urged to be at the school grounds at 9:30 sharp in order to participate in the parade. Parents will please give this special attention.

All returned soldiers and sailors, whether from Wrangell or not, are urged to be at the school grounds by 9:30 Friday morning to take part in the parade. At a joint meeting of all the Fourth of July committees, a committee was appointed to extend an invitation to all returned soldiers and sailors to participate in the parade. The committee was composed of Lieut. Donell, Greeley, Nicholas Nussbaumer and Oscar Case. In the parade the soldiers and sailors will be in charge of Lieutenant Greeley.

The afternoon will be devoted to sports, the program of which appears on the next page.

Notice

All members of the Redmen Lodge are requested to be at the hall at 9 o'clock sharp the morning of the Fourth to prepare to participate in the parade.

L. M. CHURCHILL, Secretary.

NEW BOAT OF ODD DESIGN

Inventor Claims Many Good Points for Craft Which He Has Recently Had Constructed.

Interesting ideas are embodied in a power boat of unusual design that has been constructed in the South recently. A 40-foot hull, which has a beam of only 25 inches, supports a deck 16 feet wide. Adjustable pontoons are provided beneath the latter at its outer edges, but ordinarily these do not touch the water when the craft is under way.

Although equipped with only a 12-horsepower engine, it easily makes 12 miles an hour in a smooth sea. By lowering the pontoons so that they take the weight of the vessel, the hull may be raised out of the water. Thus the boat is able to navigate in very shallow water, and also form its own drydock. Supposedly it can neither be capsized nor swamped.

The inventor, who has applied for patent rights, thinks that the idea might well be adapted to vessels of larger tonnage. Cheapness of construction, economy of fuel, speed and safety are among the numerous advantages claimed for it.

IN AFRICA

Pelican—There goes Hippo on the way to the Jungleville mask ball. But why all those spots painted on his hide?

Parrot—Oh, that is his bull costume. He's going as a giraffe.

HONEY CROP OF 1918.

The honey crop of the United States for 1918 having been placed by the department of agriculture at about 250,000,000 pounds, the American Botanist estimates that, as the nectar of flowers does not become honey until worked over and partly evaporated, the bees must move as much as 150,000 tons of material to produce this crop, exclusive of the honey eaten by themselves. Of this product, about one-half is from the nectar of white clover, with two other leguminous plants—alfalfa and sweet clover—as the next important sources. A honey that can be recognized is produced by a few plants, including cotton, basswood, tulip tree, buckwheat, goldenrod and mountain sage.

USING TRUCK AS HOIST.

Several concerns which have adopted the industrial truck and tractor system of internal haulage have found novel uses for their vehicles. In a government warehouse a platform type truck is being used to pile cork in tiers. With the use of a simple arrangement of block and tackle the loads are placed at the right point with little trouble and labor. The action is similar to a horse hoist but much faster.

GROPPING HIM OFF.

"Ah, how do you do, sir?" saluted the book agent at the door. "I am introducing 'The Famous Orators and Poets of America,' and—"

"I am not making any new acquaintances," interrupted old Gaunt N. Grimm. "G'day!"—Kansas City Star.

THE NEED.

"I see where Moro girls have been graduated as war nurses." "That's what they want—more—ah, girls!"

ANTIPATHY GRATIFIED.

"Wilhelm insists on calling him—elf a count." "I'm glad of it. I have always disapproved of counts."

THE MEASURE.

Hun—I thought you Americans loved peace. Yank—So we do; we love it well enough to fight for it.

Old Time Journalism

A western old-time editor in a reminiscent mood remarked that those were not only the days of editors with guns, but also of editors with .42 centimeter vocabularies. It was not enough to revile an enemy as a puppy, liar, scoundrel, or horse-thief. Those were trite epithets. Indeed, Billy Sunday himself might well copy the remarks of the Doniphan Constitutionalist in speaking of old Sil Miller of the White Cloud Chief:

"The editor of the Chief wishes us to bring him into notice, but we do not want to pollute our columns with such trash unless forced to do so. We would gently hint to the cross-eyed, crank-sided, peaked and long razor-nosed, blue-mouthed, white-eyed, soft-headed, squawky voiced, filthy mouthed snaggled toothed, fox ankled, pigeon toed, reelfooted, bandy shanked, ignoble black republican abolition editor to attend to his own affairs, or we will pitch into him in earnest."

St. Philip's Church

Vacation at Home

Text: "Shall I look to the Hills?" A close study of the "Hills" opens up vistas of history of the rise and fall of species which are both thrilling and suggestive. It tells us that all nature is a great Bible which, when interpreted by the Bible, points us up to God.

The shell of the clam, the ornaments of the trilobite, and the massive size and strength of the real dragons of the sea, land, and air all tell of the wrong ways of doing things. Come, and try to find the right way.

St. Philip's Church, July 6, 7:30 p. m.

An Explanation With a Moral

A customer came into a print shop and asked the price on 1,000 business cards. After looking the price up in the price list he was told they would cost him just $5. He looked at the printer in amazement.

"You get more for cards," he said, "than I used to when I was in the printing business."

"Were you in the printing business at one time?"

"I was about 10 years ago in Kansas, and we sold that kind of cards for $2.50 a thousand," the customer replied.

"Why did you quit the printing business?"

"There was no money in it," came the answer.

Witchcraft, hard to believe as still in existence, is practiced among the Indians of Telegraph Creek, according to reports from that district. The Bear Lake Indians who were camped at Elard, tied a young girl of 16, a member of the tribe, to a tree by the hair of her head, and with her hands tied behind her back and left her. At the same time they left a small boy in the woods, and he was found a few days later by prospectors a mass of mosquito bites, his face so raw that to distinguish his features it was necessary to wipe away the blood which covered them. The cruelty of this occurrence led to the arrest of the heads of the tribe of Bear Lake, who claimed the children were bewitched.—Valdez Miner.

Mrs. Fred Bevier returned on the Princess Alice Tuesday morning after spending the winter below.

"And my GOODRICH Shoes outwore Six pairs of his"

He is an old timer—been in Alaska for 21 years—and just back in the States. He was visiting the Goodrich Factory and we asked him, of course, if he ever used our Goodrich "Hi-Press" Boots and Shoes while he was up there, and he said—

"Say, those are some shoes you people make. Why, I remember one time when my partner and I went over the hills and I wore a pair of your Goodrich White Pacs. He didn't! And he wore out six pairs before we got back—I still wore my first pair."

There's the result of making Goodrich Rubber Footwear the new way,—IN ONE SINGLE PIECE—rubber tough as steel—no leaking, no peeling, no half-soling. And they're comfortable—feel like old shoes before you've worn them 24 hours.

We make all kinds,—shoes, boots, shorts and hip, for mining, fishing, logging, prospecting, etc. They always have "The Red Line 'Round The Top."

ALASKA NOTES

A shipment of $100,000 in gold was recently made out of Cordova. The shipment went by express; $60,000 was from Tolovna and $40,000 from Fairbanks.

While cleaning a cold storage chicken recently, a Fairbanks lady found a diamond valued at about $45. The stone was cut and had evidently been lost from a ring or some other piece of jewelry.

R. H. Chadwick, who has had the Alaska territory for the United States Rubber company for many years and is well known throughout the north, has quit the road and is now engaged in business with P. H. Fox, formerly of Douglas, at Aberdeen, Wash.

Mrs. A. W. Lipke left Seward a short time ago for Seattle to endeavor to get some trace of her husband. He should have reached Seattle on May 3rd, but no trace of him has been found, although the Seattle police have been working on the case. Mr. Lipke had a considerable sum of money on his person.

A mild stampede up the Taku river is reported. A number of prospectors left for the upper river early in the spring and others are leaving for the district all the time.

Returning from a hunting trip to the Nicolai recently, Wm. Godfrey of McCarthy secured a very handsome black bear, one of the largest yet killed in that region.

Private G. Conley returned to Anchorage recently from Camp Lewis, where he was attached to Company I, first infantry of the 13th division, whose insignia was a black cat and a horseshoe.

Mountain sheep in the vicinity of the upper Kuskokwim are affected with a disease known as lumpy jaw, and are dying by the hundreds. This disease is said to be very contagious and it is feared that it will wreak sad havoc among the flocks in the mountains before it spends itself.

A man named Strong has solved navigation on the Taku river, which is shallow and very swift. He has built a vessel 40 feet long in the shape of a scow and of light draft. It is powered with a 60-horsepower gas engine. It makes a speed of nine miles an hour against the current of the Taku.—Valdez Miner.

RIPLEY FISH CO.

Branch No. 4

Notice to Fishermen

Our 20th year in the fish-buying industry will prove that whenever we establish a new Branch we stay, and are also trying to do our best to give all fishermen the best possible service and prices, whether on the fishing ground or at any of our four Alaska Branches. We have the Launches Standard and Circle H and also our new ready equipped scow which will be placed on the fishing grounds around Wrangell in the early spring. This will enable us to prove our service to you fishermen. Now we want you all to give us a fair chance at your fresh Salmon and Halibut or other varieties of fresh fish. Our 20th year Motto:

Fish at Kasaan Traps Above the Average

H. Greenston who is connected with the cannery industries in this vicinity and who has been at Kasaan where he purchased the machinery recently taken out of that cannery and replaced by sanitary machinery was in the city today and regarding the fishing interests on his trip brought the following news items:

"Aside from several loads of King salmon which the Kasaan cannery tender brought into town during the month of June, they had last week and yesterday two good lifts out of the traps.

"The large spring salmon are being sold at a little better price than can be realized for them in canneries; and the sockeyes and bluebacks are being canned.

"Yesterday fish out of the Kasaan traps were an exceptional early and good load, having besides the spring approximately four thousand, principally sockeyes, some bluebacks and a few humps and dogs mixed, which apparently show all indications of an earlier season."

It never rains but it pours. Ketchikan struggled along for years with a very insignificant daily paper and now is threatened with two dailies that are both to have expensive equipment and to be real metropolitan in style.—Douglas Island News.

Many folks did not appreciate the fact that they were allowed to belong to the volunteer fire department until the poll tax went into effect.—Douglas Island News.

The jury in Juneau that tried the latest booze case did a whole lot towards making jury duty more popular in Alaska. They called for samples of all the stuff alleged to have been found and used up considerable of the evidence making sure it was the real thing.—Douglas Island News.

Members of the Alaska Labor Union are now being supplied with attractive union buttons.

Petersburg Notes

Mrs. J. C. Allen, wife of Postmaster Allen, who has been spending the past year in the east, returned on the Jefferson this week. Mrs. Allen is much improved in health as a result of her trip.

The Cape Fanshaw Fishing & Packing company has been incorporated at Seattle with a capital stock of $50,000 by H. P. Rapp, David McNaughton and W. B. McDonald.

William Abbot, who drove the delivery car for Hogue and Tveten here last winter was accidentally shot at Port Alexander on Monday the 23rd but unless complications set in will recover.

Abbot was hunting for bear early in the morning and in some manner his hunting companion mistook him for a Bruin.

The Fourth of July celebration at Valdez will be under the auspices of the Eagles' lodge of that place.

Some folks at Skagway have been stealing soil from the yard of a house there and the caretaker asked them to please leave enough dirt to support the house.

ALASKA TEAM MAY BE REPRESENTED IN NATIONAL SHOOT

Office of Governor, Juneau

June 20, 1919.

Mayor of Wrangell, Wrangell, Alaska.

Dear Sir:

The rifle matches for 1919 will be held at Caldwell, New Jersey, from August 4th to 30th, inclusive. The Territory of Alaska may be represented by a team of 17 civilians, as follows:

1 team captain, 12 principals, 2 alternates, 1 team coach and 1 team quartermaster, all shooters.

Persons selected as members of the team must report to the team captain at Caldwell not later than 6 p. m., August 3rd. The captain, as soon as selected, will have entire charge of the team and his orders must be obeyed by all members.

The 17 persons designated as members of the team must pay their own transportation from their homes to Caldwell, also their own traveling expenses and they will be reimbursed upon proper vouchers by the Quartermaster of the Firing School at Caldwell for the actual cost of the ticket and pullman from their home to Caldwell via the shortest traveled route, and expenses at the rate of $1.50 per day for every day while traveling except while on boats when meals are included in the cost of the ticket.

If subsistence expenses of the team members exceed $1.50 per day the extra cost must be borne by each member. In purchasing tickets for transportation and pullmans members must not pay the war tax but must give the agent a certificate that they are traveling on official business and are exempt from war tax.

Receipts must be taken in duplicate for all tickets and pullmans purchased but they are not necessary for meals and lodging. At the conclusion of the matches team members will be furnished transportation, sleeping car accommodations and subsistence at $1.50 per day from Caldwell to the same point from which they came.

Each member of the team must be a member of the National Rifle Association or a rifle club affiliated with the association. This membership may be taken out at the range. You are urgently requested to take immediate action in this matter and find out whether there are any men in your town or district that can qualify as sharpshooters or have already done so and have their records. Eight of the 17 members must be men who have not heretofore participated in a national match. The Governor will select the first 17 members whose applications are received that can or have qualified as sharpshooters.

If there is enough material in your town a competitive shoot should be held to ascertain the best shooters. Please wire me immediately, official business, upon receipt of this letter whether we can count on any members from your town. If you cannot handle this matter for any reason please hand this letter to some one interested, so that the organization of the team may be completed at the earliest possible date.

Cordially yours,

L. G. CRAMER, Secretary to the Governor.

What It Means

What the flag means to American citizens and world freedom is well put in these paragraphs, whose author is unknown to The Sentinel.

Of all the signs and symbols since the world began there is never another so full of meaning as the flag of this country.

That piece of red, white and blue bunting means five thousand years of struggle upward. It is the full-blown flower of ages of fighting for liberty. It is the century plant of human hope in bloom.

It means the answered prayer of generations of slaves, of the helots of Greece, of the human chattels of Rome, of the vassals of feudalism, of the serfs of Russia, of the blacks of America, of all who whipped and cursed, have crawled from the cradle to the grave through all time.

Your flag stands for humanity, for an equal opportunity to all the sons of men. Of course, we haven't arrived yet at that goal; there are many injustices yet among us, many senseless and cruel customs of the past still clinging to us, but the only hope of righting the wrongs of men lies in the feeling produced in our bosoms by the sight of that flag.

It stands for the quick against the dead, the youth of the world against its senility.

It stands for the open door of ambition against the closed door of caste.

It stands for the stability of vigorous growth against the fixedness of hoary institutions.

It waves defiance at all ghosts, they that have for long intimidated men; the ghost of monarchy, the ghost of aristocracy, the ghost of war, the ghost of ecclesiastic rule; all they that still lay shadowy hands upon the life Europe and Asia.

"Cheer up, old man! There's other fish in the sea."

Mariposa Cargo Being Salvaged

Shortly after the Mariposa went on the rocks at Strait Island off Point Baker on November 18, 1917, the Washington Salvage company sent up Captain Babbington with a crew of divers to make a divers' survey of the wreck.

Captain Babbington's report was favorable to the wreck being salvaged so he returned recently with a crew of men under charge of J. L. Frankfort and operations were begun immediately.

The divers have now recovered 300 of the 1200 tons of high grade copper are from the Kennecott mines.

After the copper is all salvaged another divers survey will be made to ascertain what cargo remains that is in condition to be worth salvaging.

The cargo, consisted in part of 1200 tons of very high grade copper ore, mostly in sacks, 8000 cases of salmon, 65 boxes of fresh halibut and a large amount of miscellaneous cargo.

The news that the men of the German fleet which was held in captivity at Scarpa Flow had scuttled their ships so that they would not fall into allied hands after the signing of the peace treaty is a sordid thing. It came to late. If they had steamed out from their bases under the guns of Helgoland and the Kiel Canal and engaged the allied fleet and all gone down with their flags flying and bands playing, the world would have applauded and thought them heroes worthy of the best naval traditions, but to sink their ships at anchor after they had once been turned over to their enemies, is just another instance of Hun treachery.—Douglas Island News.

The exodus of young folks to the neighboring canneries is starting. The young people like the simple life away from the cares and tribulations of the cities, with incidentally lots of companions of the opposite sex to talk to and flirt with in the good old summer time.—Douglas Island News.

The warning against using the United States uniform by cabaret performers and employees of business places is one which the public will endorse. This is not the time to use what is a sacred symbol of duty to the nation in advertisement and flippant amusement, so degrading it to a degree which ought to rank as a crime against the national honor.

The mayor of Berlin says the Germans are kept in leading strings and are not a free people. The straws showing the way the democratic wind is blowing in Europe are increasing in number and frequency. There is also significance in the fact that officials dare to come out in the open with such assertions and demands for more freedom.

Considering the uncertainty of the foreign mails on account of the war, it is prudent for business men to follow up original letters with one or more carbon copies posted at later dates, but they should adopt the suggestion made by our consul at Athens and see that their letterheads, giving the name and address, are printed on the carbon copy sheets.

Government reports show that more than 500,000,000 pounds of leather were brought into this country during the nine months ended March 31. That means five pounds for every man, woman and child in the nation—and yet a leather shortage is given as an excuse for high prices. What an easy old shoe is America!

Announcement is made that plans have been completed for the reproduction adjacent to Atlantic City of the famous casino at Monte Carlo. This resort will be duplicated at a cost of $350,000, the only difference, according to the promoters, being that games of chance will be omitted. Monte Carlo with Hamlet left out, so to speak.

The German press is making a huge joke of America's preparation for the war. But then it has long been a fact of traditional knowledge that he laughs best who laughs last, and by the time we are well in the war we will be having the laugh on our side.

DEMOCRACY NOW IN SADDLE

Autocrats Have Diminished Rapidly as the Result of Events of the Last Fifty Years.

During the last 50 years, particularly since the dawn of the twentieth century, autocracy has been hard hit, and the rule of "the people, by and for the people," as Abraham Lincoln said nearly sixty years ago, has spread and is spreading throughout the earth.

When, in 1870, after the battle of Sedan, Napoleon III capitulated to the German emperor, neither of them foresaw that the French republic would be the result. Neither foresaw that that republic would fight another battle of Sedan in 1918 and that a German republic would follow. A historian says that "Sedan gave the final blow to the French empire." So will some future historian write that "Sedan also gave the final blow to the German empire."

The triumphal march of democracy in this last half century began, says the Brooklyn Eagle, in September, 1870, with the fall of "Bonaparte the Little" or Napoleon III. Since that day five other empires have given way to republics, or are just on the road to become republics; Dom Pedro of Brazil, the emperor of China, the czar of all the Russias, the German kaiser and the Austrian kaiser. And added to this list should be the king of Portugal, though he was a parliamentary ruler.

FOR CORRECT METER READING

Device That Instantaneously Photographs the Exact Figures and Has Other Advantages.

An electrically operated film camera, described in the Electrical Experimenter, is especially intended for use by gas and electric meter readers. For the purpose of instantaneously photographing the exact reading of the meter it aims to provide a special interlocking arrangement between the film-exposing means or shutter and the meter.

Illumination lamps are placed in the front of the camera. During the operation of the device, certain checks are placed upon the user, so that he will be prevented from wasting film, also from making more than one exposure upon a single picture area of the film, and from operating the shutter in the belief that he is making a photographic record when, in fact, the proper film surface is not in position to receive exposure.

SURE OF IT.

A rookie at Camp Zachary Taylor, Ky., had been transferred to one of the headquarters companies to fill the vacancy left by an orderly who had been sent to the hospital. He was sitting at the desk when the captain entered.

"Good morning, general," he greeted the captain, executing a semaphoric salute.

"I am not a general," the captain replied as he took his seat.

"Good morning, colonel," was the next salutation.

"I am not a colonel, I'm a captain," explained the officer frigidly.

"I knew it, I knew it," chortled the rookie. "I was sure by your looks that you were one of the face cards in the deck!"

THE SUGGESTION.

Miss Caustic—These men who criticize so severely the wearing of overalls and trousers by women at work, amuse me.

Mr. Curious—Why so?

Miss Caustic—Because the men who are the loudest in denunciation are sure to be the ones whose wives wear the breeches at home.

CRUEL WORDS.

He (rapturously)—You accept me. Then it's a bargain.

She (calmly)—Certainly! I should not consider it if it wasn't.

NOTHING WRONG.

"I hear that you said at the club last night I was a crook and liar."

"Oh, that's nothing! Only a few of your personal friends were present."

DEFINING THE AGONY.

"How does it feel to be gassed?" "Why, haven't you ever had to listen to a long-winded bore who wouldn't let anybody else get in a word edgewise?"
